The emergency adoption of rule amendments to WAC 390-24-010 Forms for statement of financial affairs is needed to clarify the reporting obligation of elected and appointed officials when filing annual statements of financial affairs in 2007. The emergency rule would be in place for 120 days as the Commission moves forward on a parallel track with the permanent rule making process.

The proposed amendments to WAC 390-24-010 are:

I. PDC Form F-1

- Revision date change.
- Addition of new language in Section 5 (A) to include reference to limited partnerships, limited liability companies or similar entities.

See Attached.

II. PDC form F-1 Supplement Page

- Revision date change.
- Addition of new language in Section A (Office held, Business Interests) to include reference to limited partnerships, limited liability companies and similar entities.

See attached.

Action by the Commission: Staff is requesting the Commission approve the emergency rule and adopt the proposed language as part of the permanent rulemaking process. If approved, the emergency rule will be filed with the Code Reviser's Office effective on November 7, 2006 and be in applicable for 120 days. Staff will also proceed with the process for permanent adoption of the rule.
